

Men's Retreat Scholarship Form

La Cañada Presbyterian Church

We want you to come to the Men's Retreat! We believe God works in our lives each year as we gather; and we don't want you to miss out. Our desire is that all Men go the Men's Retreat regardless of their current ability to cover the cost of the retreat.

1. Please let us know what is possible for you at this time:

Amount I can pay myself: _____

Amount I am able to obtain from other sources _____

Amount I am requesting in a scholarship from LCPC _____

Total: $295

2. Please check the following boxes to give your approval. If you don't not feel comfortable checking a box, please leave it blank.

- Yes, I am committed to going to the Men's Retreat if scholarship is provided. Since receiving a scholarship and then not attending still costs the church money, I understand that the group is counting on me attending and participating fully.
- My application will be kept confidential. At the same time, I give approval for one of the pastors to ask an individual donor in the church to cover the cost of my scholarship and to reveal my name and application only to that donor with instructions to keep my application and name confidential.

3. The Men's Retreat is the result of men volunteering their time and talent. If at all possible, we would like you to call other men to invite them.

- I will make myself available to volunteer in some way. Specifically, I will volunteer to help with the Men's Retreat by.
- Calling other Men and inviting them to the retreat from a provided list
 - Staffing the sign-up table at the church
 - Organizing rides & rooms
 - Organizing a Fun Event for everyone during free time on Saturday
 - Inviting three friends
